CMA APPEAL

The Catholic Ministries Appeal is underway. The theme of this year's campaign is "I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit.... This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples." Jn 15:5. Our goal for 2020 is the same as last year: $57,151. By giving to the CMA, you are supporting your parish. The CMA provides funding for services and programs provided to your parish that would be difficult to fund on its own. Examples of these services include: Tools and Resources for Creating a Safe Environment, Human Resource Services: Recruiting, hiring and providing orientation to parish staff, pension & retirement services, healthcare, medical and other insurance processing, and seminarian, deacon and pastoral leader education and training. All of these are funded by the CMA.

IN APPRECIATION

- Many thanks to the hospitality team and Mercy Associates for hosting two events consecutively: the young adults mass, which was a great success, and the Sunday coffee hour. The parish family appreciates all you do in the service of our parish. Thank you very much! Asante sana, sana!
- Many thanks to all the Cayuga Nursing home volunteers who bring Holy Communion every Sunday and for those who help with the monthly Mass. The families of the residents appreciate your ministry. Asante sana!

THE NEED TO KNOW

- November is vocations awareness month: pray for vocations in our diocese and around the world.
- There will be no Saturday morning Mass on November 9
- Refresher training for all extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion will take place on the weekend of November 9 and 10, after each Mass.
- Don't forget to make your reservation for the Senior Thanksgiving Dinner on November 10.. 607-273-6121.

AREA EVENTS

Join Fr. Patrick Tobin as he travels from Chicago to NY for a one-day mission with the Arm Relic of St. Jude on November 16, 2019 at Holy Cross in Freeville.

A Gold Mass will be celebrated on Friday, November 15th at 5:15pm at Ana-bel Taylor Hall Chapel, with a reception to follow. Gold Masses are in celebration of scientists.

DIOCESAN REORGANIZATION

On Saturday, November 16 at 7pm, Fr. Dan Condon, Chancellor of the Diocese of Rochester, will make a short presentation about the reorganization of the Diocese, the current information available about the bankruptcy process, and its connection to the lawsuits related to the sexual abuse crisis in the Church. This presentation will be at St. Catherine of Siena Church in the Parish Center.

CEMETERY INFO

Calvary Cemetery
All flower pots and other items must be removed from the cemetery no later than Thursday, November 7, to allow for winter upkeep of the grounds. Anything left afterwards will be removed by the Cemetery staff directly.

YOUTH AND FAMILY CORNER

THANK YOU SO VERY MUCH

Thank you so much to all who purchased and participated in our Monks Biscotti fundraiser. As a result of your generosity, our sales raised over $1200, which will go toward our teens and chaperones pilgrimage to the National Catholic Youth Conference November 20-24 in Indianapolis.

This truly is a mountaintop, faith-filled experience for all who attend and we cannot wait to share our experiences with you after our return. We plan on holding a pancake breakfast in January to offset any uncovered costs for our journey and to also have young people tell you about and share images of their experience. Stay tuned for date and details.

Box of Joy Campaign

Just a reminder that Boxes of Joy are due back to the parish no later than Sunday, November 10th. You can return your boxes to the parish office OR place them in one of the large shipping boxes near the main entrances of the church. Thank you!

A Message from the Service Team

"Feed the hungry, and help those in trouble. Then your light will shine out from the darkness, and the darkness around you will be as bright as noon." Isaiah 58:10

The Service Team shares the mission of the church to bring God's love to others through outreach and evangelization.

This fall the Service Team will once again sponsor the Harvest Bag Program for the residents of Titus Towers. This will be our fourth year providing these seniors with fresh fruits and vegetables during the holiday season.

When initiated, the Harvest Bag Program provided 60 bags to the community. Last year we provided 75 bags and expect that number to increase this year. Produce is purchased from Wegmans who generously donates the bags used for distribution. Again this year the Service Team will partner with the Youth Group and Family Based Religious Education program to help sort and pack the food. Packed bags will then be delivered to Titus Towers for distribution. The response from Titus Tower residents has been very positive.

Look for us after Masses the weekends of November 9/10 and November 16/17 when we will be soliciting monetary donations. Any dollar amount is appreciated. It is through your generosity and support that we are able to continue with this ministry. Thank you!

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

You only live once

"Somehow, my heart has been made to hold the world." Sister of Charity Tracy Kemme explains her attraction to religious life with these words. In a book of essays by young women religious, In Our Own Words: Religious Life in a Changing World, she and other recently professed sisters describe what it means for them to "go big or go home" in life's great adventure. Kemme quotes T.S. Eliot: "Only those who will risk going too far can possibly find out how far one can go." As Vocation Awareness Week begins, consider how far you're prepared to go.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 11:22—12:2; 2 Thessalonians 1:11—2:2; Luke 19:1-10 (153). "We always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling."

Monday, Nov 04, 2019

MEMORIAL OF CHARLES BORROMEO, BISHOP

Out-of-synch saint

With Vocation Awareness Week underway, we celebrate the 16th-century Italian Charles Borromeo, who was pretty sure of his vocation by the age of 12. As he grew in understanding of who he was called to be, he gave away his wealth and dedicated himself to service of the poor. He was made a cardinal by his uncle, Pope Pius IV. After that, in order to become the archbishop of Milan, he was ordained a priest. (An unusual sequence but possible at that time.) A zealous reformer of the church, he died at the age of 43 but was made a saint 26 years later. All are called to serve and to the sainthood of all believers. Consider your own vocation—have you found it yet?

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 11:29-36; Luke 14:12-14 (485). "When you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind."

Tuesday, Nov 05, 2019

It starts with a good word

Did you know that a surprising number of sisters, brothers, and priests say that they first considered a vocation to religious life simply because someone—a teacher, friend, or relative—suggested it to them? Did someone point out to you early in life that you'd be good at sales or carpentry or design—or whatever it is you now do for a living? Do the same for a young person you know, if you see in them qualities that would suit them to religious life. You might be planting the seed of a future vocation.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 12:5-16b; Luke 14:15-24 (486). "Go out to the highways and hedgerows and make people come in that my home may be filled."

Wednesday, Nov 06, 2019

Hold things lightly

Today is the middle of National Vocation Awareness Week, a good time for people from all walks of life to consider their calling. At the same time, today's gospel does not soften a hard message that no matter our calling, all disciples should hold lightly to both family and possessions. While the vows and promises priests, sisters, and brothers make involve renunciation of possessions and often mean less family contact, Christians in every walk of life may be required to turn from family and let go of belongings at some point. In your prayer today, consider what sacrifices your life path has required—and what joys it has brought you.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 13:8-10; Luke 14:25-33 (487).

"Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple."

Thursday, Nov 07, 2019

Go ahead, be a loser!

Even though the U.S. Catholic Church is promoting Vocation Awareness Week—for vocations to the priesthood and religious life—it's also an opportunity for everyone to reflect upon their own vocation in life, to re-examine their larger philosophy of life. While it's true that Jesus uses parables that describe the joy of finding lost things—the shepherd who searches for one of 100 sheep, the woman who scours her home for one of 10 coins—Jesus also says we must lose our life to keep it. Who, me? A martyr? Not necessarily. But in a world that fosters self-centeredness, we can practice acts of self-sacrifice. Some even call it "dying before we die," the "white martyrdom" of saints in heaven—but also the saints who live nearby.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 14:7-12; Luke 15:1-10 (488). "None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself."

Friday, Nov 08, 2019

Let the Spirit guide you

Jesus promised his disciples that after he left this earth, his Spirit would continue to be with them. Those who believe in Jesus and try to live as he did are the disciples of today. So when we struggle with a problem, face a difficult decision, or are worried about life's events, we too can count on the Spirit of Jesus, God's Holy Spirit, for wisdom and consolation. Any and every day is the time to call on the promised Spirit. Take a moment in quiet prayer today to ask God's Spirit to lead you through the day.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 15:14-21; Luke 16:1-8 (489). "I will not dare to speak of anything except what Christ has done through me . . . by the power of God's Spirit."

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

The grace of sacred space

It's not every day in the life of the church that we have a feast day for a building. But Saint John Lateran is not about a history set in stone. The feast we celebrate today is a feast of the living church: our life in Jesus the Christ and our life with the whole communion of saints. Because we belong to the Body of Christ, the spaces we gather in are also sacred—be they basilicas or family rooms, soup kitchens or pubs, nature trails or borderlands. In gratitude for this feast, what is one way you can extend sacred space to someone else?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17; John 2:13-22 (671). "Jesus was speaking about the temple of his body."

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In search of heavenly bodies

Church father Tertullian insisted: “The flesh is the hinge of salvation.” Cyril of Jerusalem concurred: “Do not believe anyone who maintains that our bodies have nothing to do with God.” These thoughts countered religious schools disdaining the body and viewing only the purely spiritual soul as worthy of the afterlife. Christian thinkers held the Resurrection of Jesus as proof positive that God values the entire human person. So we profess in our Creed each Sunday: “I believe in the resurrection of the body.” Our flesh and blood takes its dignity from the God who chose to inhabit it personally.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14; 2 Thessalonians 2:16—3:5; Luke 20:27-38 (156). “May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ.”

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN OF TOURS, BISHOP

Be of service

On Veterans Day we honor all people who have served in the United States Armed Forces. While we honor that past service, also remember that veterans have a life after the military and sometimes need help as civilians—whether it be a job or a meal or a friend. Saint Martin of Tours was a fourth-century soldier who, after encountering a beggar, said to his commander, “I have served you as a soldier; now let me serve Christ.” Pray to Martin for today’s veterans and serve those who’ve served us.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 1:1-7; Luke 17:1-6 (491). “If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.”

Tuesday, Nov 12, 2019

MEMORIAL OF JOSAPHAT, BISHOP, MARTYR

Father, may they all be one

Josaphat is commonly known as the patron saint for Christian unity, his martyrdom in 1623 coming as the result of his efforts to bring a segment of the Eastern Orthodox Christian faith back into full communion with the Catholic Church following the Great Schism of 1054. He succeeded. And today, 23 different Eastern Catholic Churches—each keeping their unique Eastern liturgies, theologies, and customs—are in full communion with the Roman Church. What’s not as well known: Josaphat had a favorite devotional practice, the penitential poklon (Old Slavic for “deep bow”) while saying the Jesus Prayer. Honor him—and all humble, peacemaking efforts for unity—by praying the Jesus Prayer today: “Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.”

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 2:23—3:9; Luke 17:7-10 (492). “Grace and mercy are with his holy ones.”

Wednesday, Nov 13, 2019

MEMORIAL OF FRANCES XAVIER CABRINI

Be persistent in your faithful service

Poor health kept Frances Xavier Cabrini (1850-1917) from joining a local Italian convent. Determined, prayerful, and organized, she started her own religious community. Soon known as Mother Cabrini, she established convents and then opened schools, hospitals, and homes to care for poor children. Pope Leo XIII asked Frances to bring her considerable skills to the United States where more than 50,000 Italian immigrants lived in poverty. When she arrived, the local archbishop told her to go back to Italy! But Frances persisted, bringing the love of God to the immigrant poor. Canonized as the first naturalized American citizen in 1946, she is the patron saint of immigrants. Say a prayer this day for the immigrants in your community.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 6:1-11; Luke 17:11-19 (493). “Stand up and go your way; your faith has been your salvation.”

Thursday, Nov 14, 2019

In every end, a new beginning

This time of year, we hear a lot about the end of the world in the readings. That might seem odd as we approach Advent and prepare for the birth of Christ. A newborn, after all, is the ultimate new beginning—especially when one is born to bring salvation. But then again, we’re concluding the church year soon, so reflecting on endings is fitting. Even nature in northern climes is going dormant to ready itself for rebirth in the spring. Get your spirit in sync with the church season and pray that the light continue to overcome the darkness.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 7:22b—8:1; Luke 17:20-25 (494). “For behold, the kingdom of God is among you.”

Friday, Nov 15, 2019

MEMORIAL OF ALBERT THE GREAT, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Charitable thinking

Saint Albert had broad interests that advanced many areas of study in medieval Europe, including natural sciences, logic, music, mathematics, astronomy, and economics. His incorporation of Greek and Arabic philosophy in his studies paved the way for the influential work of future Catholic theologians, including his renowned student Saint Thomas Aquinas. But Albert’s expansive intellectual pursuits, while rightly labeled “great” by history, all led him back to one simple truth: “If we possess charity, we possess God, for ‘God is Charity.’” Recognize God in the charitable giving—material or spiritual, in word or deed—that you offer and receive today.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 13:1-9; Luke 17:26-37 (495). “All . . . were by nature foolish who were in ignorance of God . . . who from studying the works did not discern the artisan.”

Saturday, Nov 16, 2019

MEMORIAL OF MARGARET OF SCOTLAND

Don't let comfort insulate you from the needy

Saint Margaret of Scotland may have been queen—with all the perks of that lofty position—but her early life wasn’t easy. Her father died when she was young and her family had to flee trouble. She ended up in Scotland because she was shipwrecked there. Maybe that’s why she was so kind and generous after marrying the king, always helping the poor and building churches, because she had known hard times, with no one but God to lean on. Let your own trials and tribulations make you more empathetic with others.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 18:14-16; 19:6-9; Luke 18:1-8 (496). “Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night?”
